

Dear Hanan M. Isaacs, Esq:

We are pleased to inform you that you have again been selected by your peers to be included in the upcoming 2007 edition of The Best Lawyers in America® in the specialty of Alternative Dispute Resolution.

Inclusion in Best Lawyers® is based on an exhaustive and rigorous peer-review survey. Lawyers are not allowed to pay a fee to be listed, and Best Lawyers publishes an advertisement-free book each year to honor all those chosen – something that no other survey does. The current edition of Best Lawyers is based on 1.6 million confidential evaluations by only the top attorneys in the country. In addition, Best Lawyers conducts extensive telephone interviews with leading attorneys throughout its balloting process.

As a result of the most recent poll, several new categories will appear in the 2007 edition (which will be published in the fall of 2006), including Administrative Law, Advertising Law, Biotechnology Law, Elder Law, Eminent Domain and Condemnation Law, Government Relations Law, Land Use & Zoning Law, Media Law, Medical Malpractice Law, Non-Profit/Charities Law, Product Liability Litigation, Professional Malpractice Law, Regulatory Law, School Law, Sports Law and Technology Law. These changes will appear immediately in the online edition of our listings at www.BestLawyers.com.

Last year, Best Lawyers, in cooperation with ALM (formerly American Lawyer Media), arranged for the new Best Lawyers® list of New York area attorneys (New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut) to debut in a Special Double Issue of New York magazine in August 2005. That issue was such a success that we have arranged to have the results of our most recent poll, completed just this month, appear in the July 3, 2006, Special Double Issue of New York magazine (on newsstands June 26, 2006). Because you were selected by your peers to be included in the next edition of Best Lawyers, you will also be listed in the New York magazine issue.

The special Best Lawyers edition of New York magazine will reach more than 1,000,000 readers. A member of the ALM team will contact you soon to demonstrate how you and your firm can make the most of this extraordinary promotional opportunity.

Again, congratulations on being chosen by your fellow attorneys as one of The Best Lawyers in America®!

Sincerely,

Steven W. Naifeh
